

Over this year we are going to be reading the New Testament together. There will be several readings each week and the idea is that you can do these in your own time in the week. On the Sunday, one of the passages of the week will be preached from and then some reflections set that you can either do by yourself, or as a group of people together.

The chart below gives you the week beginning as a date. In that week you should aim to read the readings in that row. The first reading is most likely (but not always) going to be the Sunday reading that week as well.
